Small Matters and Great

[ERE is news of divers kind, but of one general character. The channel pointed out is different in each, but all lead to economies in things you need.

Some of these are on small lots, -bargains of the touch-and-go sort-but they are the richest of all.

Here, for one example, is an important matter of Men's Shoes at One Dollar a Pair.

There are only 470 pairs, and they are mostly in Congress shoes;—some of the larger sizes are laced. The original values of these were $2 and $3. Good shoes at an absurd price.

Women's Shoes at $1.50 a Pair.

Not a shoe that you would expect at that price. Not the cheap-stitched shoe, full of waxed ends and knotted threads, but a Goodyear welted shoe and the biggest money's worth we have presented in a long time. Made of chrome tanned kidskin, with patent leather and kid tips and two new toe shapes.
